EMERGENCY MOTION TO PLACE UNDER SEAL

Now comes the Plaintiff/Defendant-in-Counterclaim, Hasbro, Inc. (“Hasbro”) and moves this Honorable Court to seal all of the exhibits attached by Defendant/Plaintiff-in-Counterclaim Atari to its Answer and Counterclaim (Document 10).

The exhibits (Documents 10-2 – 10-10) all deal with a confidential license agreement between the two parties and contain communications between the parties concerning that licensing agreement that were intended to be kept confidential. The materials also contain numerous sensitive business communications regarding the parties’ complex business relations, some of which include financial terms and conditions. Hasbro has a good faith basis for believing that the documents should be sealed so that they are not available for public disclosure.

Hasbro has attempted to confer with counsel for Atari to discuss submitting a joint request to seal said exhibits. Unfortunately, Hasbro has been unable to reach counsel for Atari. Out of an abundance of caution, Hasbro has elected to file the within Emergency Motion so as to guard against the dissemination of the materials and information contained in the exhibits during the Christmas holiday. Accordingly, Hasbro respectfully requests that the Court temporally limit access to said exhibits until such time as the Court is able to consider the within Motion.

WHEREFORE, Hasbro hereby requests that the exhibits (Documents 10-2 – 10-10) be sealed and be made available only for the use of those people connected with this litigation. Hasbro additionally requests that the Court limit access to said documents until such time as it considers and rules upon the within Motion.
